

إمتحان ثلاثة الأصول و أربعين حديثًا في مذهب السلف

Section one: Give a short answer to 3 of the following questions (15 marks):

1. What is the book, the Three Fundamental Principles, based upon?
2. Why should a caller to Allah have patience (give evidence from the Qur'an)?
3. Why should knowledge come before statements and actions?
4. What is the first matter that a caller to Allah should call toward (give evidence from the Hadeeth)?
5. What are two consequences of Shirk?

Section two: Answer true or false for the following questions and if the answer is false give the correct answer (5 marks):

1. Knowledge is Islam is knowing Chemistry, biology and other sciences.
2. It is good if the Christians, Muslims and Hindus unite.
3. The religion of Ibraheem is to worship Allah with sincerity in the religion.
4. Imam Bukhari was born in the year 256 after the Hijrah.
5. Imam Ash Shafi'ee is from the four Imams.

Section three: Write a short paragraph on one of the three topics using at least one evidence from the Qur'an or the Sunnah (10 marks):

The differences between the correct type of worship and the incorrect types of worship.

The obligation of seeking knowledge.

Sincerity.

Section four: Give a short answer with evidences from the Qur'an or Sunnah to the following scenario (20 marks):

A man goes up in front of the people and says the following words:

“There is no need to learn in order to give da'wah because the messenger (salallahu alaihi wa sallam) said: “Convey from me even if it is only a verse.” My dear brothers and sisters we need to unite the Ummah. It does not matter whether we are Sunni, Shia', Sufi or whatever else. All of us say La ilaha ill Allah Muhammadar Rasulallah. And as for teaching Tawheed and warning against Shirk and Bid'ah this only disunites us further. When we are in one row then we can solve these differences.